Symposium of the 7th Beijing International Art Biennale

Dear Sir or Madam,

The 7th Beijing Biennale will be held from September 24th to October 15th, 2017 in Beijing. The one-day long symposium of the 7th Beijing Biennale will be held on September 25th. According to previous practice, symposiums are held during each session of Beijing Biennale. Artists from all over the world and representatives from art institutions and media will be invited to participate in the symposium, which has become a rostrum for theorists and artists from all over the world to communicate freely with each other. Beijing Biennale, together with the symposium provides an international platform for transnational artistic exchanges.

The theme of the 7th Beijing Biennale has a strong realistic pertinence and is universally applicable, so that representatives from different countries could have a better communication on this common platform. Featured by professionalism, concentration, in-depth insights, this upcoming symposium will definitely be one of the greatest international academic exchanges of the art community in 2017. The symposium adopts the form of time-limited speech and free speech. Conference handbook will be provided before the symposium. The symposium will last one day after the opening ceremony of Beijing Biennale (The opening ceremony will be on Sep 24th, 2017). The Organizing Committee of Beijing Biennale will be responsible for the cost of 4-day accommodation and expenses in Beijing of all invited delegates.

The topic for the symposium is the Spirit of the Silk Road and the Creation of International Contemporary Art, which is pertinent to the theme of the 7th Beijing Biennale: “The Silk Road and World Civilizations”. The topic contains three aspects.

1. Feelings, Evaluations and Suggestions:

Different from other biennales, Beijing Biennale focuses on contemporary paintings and sculptures. It is open to advices from all sides, such as feelings towards the 7th Beijing Biennale and suggestions for the theme of the next session and how it can develop into a more influential international art platform. We welcome feedback from every participant, no matter whether you are an artist or not. If you can't present at the symposium, you can send your remarks to the organizing committee, which is of great significance for the further development of Beijing Biennale.

2. Theoretical discussions on the relations between the spirit of the Silk Road and international art creation are also suggested.

3. If your artwork is pertinent to the theme of the 7th Beijing Biennale, you are suggested to share with us of your inspirations and the creation process.

The symposium of the 7th Beijing Biennale is open to all. Please send the outline of your speech of dissertation by e-mail to us before August 11th, 2017. We will select some speakers and contact with them.
